

I believe that I should have the right to a no call list. If I wanted to have strangers calling my house at all hours I would not have placed my phone number on the list. I do not want the phone line that I pay for to be used to try and sell me services I do not want. If the banks want to explain their services let them pay for commercial advertising and spend their time and money and not waste mine.